

Privacy Policy

Protecting your private information is our priority. This Statement of Privacy applies to vickerslaw.net and Vickers Kempf PLLC and governs data collection and usage. For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, unless otherwise notes, all references to Vickers Kempf PLLC include vickerslaw.net and Vickers Kempf. The Vickers Kempf website is a Business and Estate Law Firm site. By using the Vickers Kempf website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

Collection of your Personal Information

We do not collect any personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us. However, you may be required to provide certain personal information to us when you elect to use certain services available on the Site. These may include: (a) Registering for an account on our Site; (b) sending us an email message. To wit, we will use your information for, but not limited to, communicating with you in relation to services and/or products you have requested from us. We may also gather additional personal or non-personal information in the future.

Sharing Information with Third Parties

We do not control the privacy policies of third-party websites, our affiliates, service providers, and partners which may be accessed, directly or indirectly, through your use of the Site. Any data you provide to, or that is collected by, third-party sites may be subject to the privacy policies of those sites (including third-party content embedded on the Site), if any. It is up to you to review the terms of use and privacy policy of third-party websites or third-party content originators.

Vickers Kempf does not sell, rent, or lease its customer lists to third parties.

Vickers Kempf may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to Vickers Kempf, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

Vickers Kempf may disclose your personal information, without notice, if required to do so by law or in the good faith that such action is necessary to (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on Vickers Kempf or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights of property of Vickers Kempf; and/or (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of Vickers Kempf or the public.

Tracking User Behavior

Vickers Kempf may keep track of the websites and pages our users visit within Vickers Kempf, in order to determine what Vickers Kempf services are the most popular. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within Vickers Kempf to customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

Automatically Collected Information

Information about your computer hardware and software may be automatically collected by Vickers Kempf. This information may include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain the quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Vickers Kempf website.

Security of Your Personal Information

Vickers Kempf secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. Vickers Kempf uses the following methods for this purpose:

- SSL Protocol

When personal information is transmitted to other websites, it is protected through the use of encryption, such as the Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) protocol.

We strive to take appropriate security measures to protect against unauthorized access to or alteration of your personal information. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect our personal information, you acknowledge that (a) there are security and privacy limitations inherent to the Internet which are beyond our control; and (b) security, integrity, and privacy of any and all information and data exchanged between you and us through this Site cannot be guaranteed.

Children Under Thirteen

Vickers Kempf does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under the age of thirteen. If you are under the age of thirteen, you must ask your parents or guardian for permission to use this website.

Email Communications

From time to time, Vickers Kempf may contact you via email for the purpose of providing announcements, confirmations, and/or other general information.

Changes to this Statement

Vickers Kempf reserves the right to change this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you about significant changes in the way we treat personal information by sending a notice to the primary email address specified in your account, by placing a prominent notice on our site, and/or by updating any privacy information on this page. Your continued use of the Site and/or Services available through this Site after such modifications will constitute your (a) acknowledgement of the modified Privacy Policy; and (b) agreement to abide and be bound by that Policy.
